

Lantheus Medical Imaging Announces Promotion Of Robert Gaffey To Chief Financial Officer

January 18, 2011 2:26 PM ET

No. BILLERICA, Mass. (January 18, 2011) – Lantheus Medical Imaging, Inc., a worldwide leader in diagnostic imaging, today announced the promotion of Robert Gaffey to Chief Financial Officer. He was most recently Vice President, Finance and Information Technology. In this expanded role, Mr. Gaffey will add the leadership for investor relations and strategic corporate communications to his current responsibilities of directing the Company's global financial strategy. Mr. Gaffey will continue to report to Lantheus President and Chief Executive Officer, Don Kiepert.

"Bob has been a tremendous asset to the Company, having served in multiple leadership roles since the Company's early days," said Mr. Kiepert. "This promotion reflects his many contributions to the Company and the instrumental role he played in leading the Company into the public domain through our recent bond offering. As Chief Financial Officer, Bob's financial expertise will continue to be of significant value as we execute our corporate strategy and grow the Company."

Mr. Gaffey has served in several key leadership positions at the Company for more than 35 years. Starting his career when the Company was part of E.I. DuPont de Nemours, he helped lead the Company through its transition to Bristol-Myers Squibb Medical Imaging and the sale to a private equity investment firm, which re-launched the Company as Lantheus Medical Imaging. Mr. Gaffey earned a B.S. from Bentley College and an M.B.A. from Widener University.
