

Lantheus and Progenics Reschedule Their Respective Special Meetings of Stockholders for Proposed Merger

April 2, 2020

NORTH BILLERICA, Mass.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 2, 2020-- Lantheus Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: LNTN) ("Lantheus"), parent company of Lantheus Medical Imaging, Inc. ("LMI"), a leader in the development, manufacture and commercialization of innovative diagnostic imaging agents and products, and Progenics Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (NASDAQ: PGNX) ("Progenics"), an oncology company developing innovative medicines and artificial intelligence to find, fight and follow cancer, today announced that they have decided to reschedule their respective special meetings of stockholders (the "Special Meetings") to vote on matters related to the proposed merger of Lantheus and Progenics from April 28, 2020, to June 16, 2020.

The logo for Progenics Pharmaceuticals features the word "Progenics" in a large, red, serif font, with "Pharmaceuticals" in a smaller, red, sans-serif font below it.

The rescheduled Special Meetings will allow both companies the time necessary to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic and its effect on each company's business and on the combined entity.

Further details about the time, location and record date for the Special Meetings will be announced when finalized.

"We continue to believe that a combination of our two companies will create a stronger, more diversified precision diagnostics imaging and therapeutics company," said Mary Anne Heino, President and Chief Executive Officer of Lantheus. "We remain excited about the potential value that can be unlocked by combining our two businesses and are encouraged by what we have continued to learn about the Progenics business during our ongoing integration efforts. We look forward to putting the vote before our stockholders, closing the merger and beginning this exciting next phase of growth for our business."

There are no additional changes to the previously announced terms of the proposed combination. Lantheus and Progenics both remain committed to closing the transaction in the second quarter of 2020 and remain confident in the benefits that the proposed combination will bring to the stockholders of both companies.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

This document contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 that are subject to risks and uncertainties and are made pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Such statements are based upon current plans, estimates and expectations that are subject to various risks and uncertainties. The inclusion of forward-looking statements should not be regarded as a representation that such plans, estimates and expectations will be achieved. Words such as "anticipate," "expect," "project," "intend," "believe," "may," "will," "should," "plan," "could," "target," "contemplate," "estimate," "predict," "potential," "opportunity," "creates" and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future plans, actions or events identify forward-looking statements. All statements, other than historical facts, including the expected timing of the closing of the merger; the ability of the parties to complete the merger considering the various closing conditions; the expected benefits of the merger, such as efficiencies, cost savings, synergies, revenue growth, creating shareholder value, growth potential, market profile, enhanced competitive position, and financial strength and flexibility; the competitive ability and position of the combined company; and any assumptions underlying any of the foregoing, are forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from Lantheus' and Progenics' plans, estimates or expectations could include, but are not limited to: (i) Lantheus or Progenics may be unable to obtain stockholder approval as required for the merger; (ii) conditions to the closing of the merger may not be satisfied; (iii) the merger may involve unexpected costs, liabilities or delays; (iv) the effect of the announcement of the merger on the ability of Lantheus or Progenics to retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with customers, suppliers and others with whom Lantheus or Progenics does business, or on Lantheus' or Progenics' operating results and business generally; (v) Lantheus' or Progenics' respective businesses may suffer as a result of uncertainty surrounding the merger and disruption of management's attention due to the merger; (vi) the outcome of any legal proceedings related to the merger; (vii) Lantheus or Progenics may be adversely affected by other economic, business, and/or competitive factors, including the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic; (viii) the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the termination of the merger agreement; (ix) risks that the merger disrupts current plans and operations and the potential difficulties in employee retention as a result of the merger; (x) the risk that Lantheus or Progenics may be unable to obtain governmental and regulatory approvals required for the transaction, or that required governmental and regulatory approvals may delay the transaction or result in the imposition of conditions that could reduce the anticipated benefits from the proposed transaction or cause the parties to abandon the proposed transaction; (xi) risks that the anticipated benefits of the merger or other commercial opportunities may otherwise not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected; (xii) the impact of legislative, regulatory, competitive and technological changes; (xiii) expectations for future clinical trials, the timing and potential outcomes of clinical studies and interactions with regulatory authorities; and (xiv) other risks to the consummation of the merger, including the risk that the merger will not be consummated within the expected time period or at all. Additional factors that may affect the future results of Lantheus and Progenics are set forth in their respective filings with the SEC, including each of Lantheus' and Progenics' most recently filed Annual Report on Form 10-K, subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, Current Reports on Form 8-K and other filings with the SEC, which are available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Readers are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating these forward-looking statements, and not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Readers should also carefully review the risk factors described in other documents that Lantheus and Progenics file from time to time with the SEC. The forward-looking statements in this document speak only as of the date of these materials. Except as required by law, Lantheus and Progenics assume no obligation to update or revise these forward-looking statements for any reason, even if new information becomes available in the future.
